Urgent

To the Defendant

You have not made payment under the judgment as you were ordered. The claimant has therefore asked for a warrant to be issued to the bailiff to seize and sell your goods. Unless you pay the amount due to the county court before 16 March 2003 the bailiff will call may remove your goods for sale at public auction. This may mean that you will have to pay further costs.

Payments Into Court

You can pay the court by calling at the court office which is open 10 am to 4 pm Monday to Friday

You may only pay by:

- * cash
- * banker's or giro credit
- * cheque supported by a cheque card
- * cheque (unsupported cheques may be accepted subject to clearance, if the Chief Clerk agrees)

Cheques and drafts must be made payable to HM Paymaster General and crossed.

Please bring this form with you

Note:

You should carefully check any future forms from the court to see if payments should be made directly to the claimant - where judgment was entered for more than £5000 or includes a sum in respect of contractual or late payment interest, the claimant may be entitled to further interest. If you pay the total to pay on the warrant, together with the balance outstanding, by the date shown above, the claimant will not be entitled to further interest.

By Post

You may only pay by:

- * postal order
- * banker's or giro draft
- * cheque (cheques may be accepted subject to clearance, if the Chief Clerk agrees)

The payment must be made out to HM Paymaster General and crossed. This method of payment is at your own risk. And you must:

- * pay the postage
- * enclose this form
- * enclose a self addressed envelope so that the court can return this form with a receipt.

The court cannot accept stamps or payments by bank and giro credit transfers
